

Sandra Garvie, 1948-1979

Sandra Garvie, Librarian in the Legal Resource Centre of the Faculty of Extension passed away suddenly on 4 September.

A graduate of this University in Arts and holding a MLS from the University of British Columbia, Miss Garvie joined the staff of The University of Alberta in 1974 as a Librarian in the cataloguing division of Cameron Library. In 1976, she took up her appointment in the Faculty of Extension.

Before coming to this institution, Miss Garvie worked in various capacities at the University of British Columbia and at Grant MacEwan Community College. A member of several professional associations and organizations, she was President of the Alberta Library Association and one of the founders of the Edmonton Law Librarians' Association. In advising associates of Miss Garvie's sudden demise, C.M. Lockwood, Dean of the Faculty of Extension, praised the special contribution she had made to the work of the Legal Resource Centre. "She brought a high level of competence, energy and innovation to her work, and in doing so, served the University and the public of Alberta in an outstanding manner."

It is planned to set up an educational fund to honor the memory of Miss Garvie. Contributions to the fund may be directed to the following address:

The University of Alberta
Sandra Garvie Educational Fund,
Legal Resource Centre,
10047 81 Avenue,
Edmonton, Alberta,
T6E 1W7.

Notices

Alberta Heritage Savings Trust Fund Conference

A detailed brochure outlining the complete agenda for the University of Alberta conference on the Alberta Heritage Savings Trust Fund, 18 to 19 October 1979, is now available. Staff members of The University of Alberta wishing to attend any of the sessions of the conference, must register on the appropriate form, obtainable along with the brochure by telephoning either Mrs. Joan McDonald (432-4417) or Ms. Midge Nicholchuk (432-3901). A registration fee of either $15 (including the final conference banquet at which The Hon. Louis D. Hyndman, Provincial Treasurer, will speak) or $40 (including the cost of two lunches and one dinner in addition to the banquet) must accompany each registration. Registrations, complete with the application fee should be received no later than 1 October 1979. Since space is definitely limited, the conference organizers reserve the right to reject registrations not received in plenty of time.

Catholic Campus Ministry Academic Mass

There will be an Academic Mass at St. Joseph's College Sunday, 16 September, at 11 a.m. to open the 1979-80 academic year. Archbishop Joseph MacNeil JCD will be the main celebrant and will give the homily. The Chancellor of the University, Jean Forest, will do one of the readings.

Members of the University Academic Staff are invited to participate in the Academic Procession which starts at the Faculty Lounge (opposite the front doors of the College). Please bring your academic robes. A small number of gowns will be available in the Lounge.

Faculty Curling Association

The first game of the 1979-80 curling season will be played on Thursday, 4 October. All games will be played in the Students' Union Curling Rink, SUB. As in previous years, the draws will be on Thursday night at 5, 7, and 9 p.m.

The annual organizational meeting will be held in the Saskatchewan "A" room of the Faculty Club on Wednesday, 26 September at 5 p.m. A representative of each team must attend the entire meeting. Draw preference (5, 7, or 9 p.m.) will be given to those teams which have a representative in attendance at the meeting.

The club can only accommodate twelve rinks at each draw time, for a maximum of 36 rinks. The deadline for receipt of entries is 26 September, so send your entry as soon as possible.

Curling fees have been increased slightly this year. The fee is $150 per rink, which is $1.88 per person per game. The skip is responsible for submitting the full season's fee, which should accompany the entry form. Cheques should be made payable to: The Faculty Curling Association.

A bonspiel has been set for 28 February to 1 March, which is during Reading Week of the second term. The annual banquet will take place on 15 March at the Faculty Club.

Additional forms and further information may be obtained from Mary Jane Davies, Department of Plant Science.

Acting Vice-President (Academic)

Dr. Willard Allen, Associate Vice-President (Academic) has consented to serve as Acting V.P. (Academic) until such time as a new permanent appointment is made.

Faculty Badminton

The main gymnasium will be available to all those eligible for the Faculty Club, including spouses and post-doctoral fellows, to play badminton each Wednesday, 8:30 p.m. to 10:45 p.m. beginning 12 September. Fees are $6 per faculty member or spouse and $1.00 per post-doctoral fellow. Both beginners and experienced players are welcome. For information contact: D. Rankin, Telephone 432-3985, Reg Trollope, Telephone 432-3398, or M. Madunicky, telephone 423-8182.

Library

Effective 10 September 1979, the basic loan period for materials from the Undergraduate Library (Floor 2, Cameron Library) is increased to two weeks with the usual extended loan periods for certain borrower categories (e.g. faculty and graduate students).

LRT Seminar

The position of The University of Alberta vis à vis Light Rail Transit (LRT) will be the subject for consideration at an open seminar to be held 20 September at 2:30 p.m. in the Multi-Media Classroom, 2-115 Education North. The seminar is to be sponsored by the Campus Development Committee and will be chaired by R.E. Phillips, Vice-President (Planning and Development). John Toffelmire of the City of Edmonton's Planning Office will present an oral and visual report on the City's latest study concerning the extension of RT services to the south of the North Saskatchewan River. Following this presentation, there will be a question period.

It is hoped that many people will attend the seminar and that the University community will thus become more fully aware of the options available and the factors governing the ultimate selection of a desirable LRT corridor within the University area. For more detailed information about the LRT in this area of the city, please consult the article which appeared in Folio (22 March 1979).

Study Leave

Faculty members are reminded that, in accordance with the Board/AASUA Agreement-Faculty, applications for 1980-81 study leave should be submitted, through department Chairmen to Deans, no later than 15 October 1979. Application forms are available in Faculty offices or from the Office of the Vice-President (Academic).
